And what, friend, will I do if with me you refuse
to live?
For you are all I want in life.

You'll cause me great distress if you go anywhere else
to live,
for you are all I want in life.

If you make this journey, you'll take away my reason
to live,
for you are all I want in life.

Kill myself is what I'll do if without me you
can live,
for you are all I want in life.
