My friend is dying of love for me, but I don't believe it, and so he says he'll come and die right at my feet, and I would really like to see whether or not he dies for me.

He sent a message imploring me to be so kind as to let him die right here and to watch him while he dies.
whether or not he dies for me.

Women, don't ever believe the suitor who would die, for I have yet to see it, although I wish he'd try.
Yes, I would really like to see whether or not he dies for me.
