A fair girl, wide awake,
it's my turn
and my friend on his way
today it's my turn.

Awake the whole night
it's my turn
till at last he arrived
today it's my turn.

My friend on his way
it's my turn
with sweet nothings to say
today it's my turn.

When at last he arrived
it's my turn
how sweet were his rhymes
today it's my turn.

How long I've been wishing,
it's my turn
to have you here with me
today it's my turn.

How long I've desired
it's my turn
to have you by my side,
today it's my turn.

My night, by God, this is my night
it's my turn
I know who won't say “This is my night”
today it's my turn.

I know who won't say “This is my night”
it's my turn

A devil's who won't say “This is my night”
today it's my turn.
