Dear abbess, I have heard that you are very learned about what's good; for love of God, please have mercy on me, as I know nothing more than an ass about fucking and just this year got married.

I've heard that when it comes to fucking and other good fun you're a most learned nun, so teach me how to fuck, Madam, as I'm untrained:
my parents never explained, and I remained quite dumb.

And if by you I'm told about the art of screwing, and if I learn to do it from you in your Godly role as abbess, each time I fuck I'll say a solemn Our Father, and I'll say it for your soul.

I'm certain, Madam, that you can thus attain God's kingdom: by teaching all poor sinners more than abstaining from food, and by teaching all the women who come to seek your wisdom about how they should screw.
